

The S.O.A.P. Bible Study Plan is one plan among many that will help you get more out of your Bible reading and study. It follows a simple concept which results in a deeper understanding of the scripture.

- S - identifies the content of scripture
- O - initial observations from scripture
- A - application of the scripture to my life
- P - directs prayer related to the scripture

WHO TO FOLLOW. WHAT TO DO.

1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles.

And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, 2 fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. - Hebrews 12:1-2

Introduction

Fall brings thoughts of students returning to school, football games, harvesting, and hopefully cooler temperatures. And once again we find ourselves in a season of great uncertainty. In seasons of uncertainty more than any other, we need to be clear about who we are following and what we are doing.

These two books of the Bible, Hebrews and James, give us guidance most needed today. There is much to learn from these two books about the greatness of Jesus and how what we learn about him practically applies to our everyday life. Many scholars believe these two books should be read together and have alignment in thought and application. We will do just that this month.

As you read Hebrews you will at times feel overwhelmed with the complexity of the content. It's ok. Everybody does. Just keep reading and searching for truth. Focus on Jesus and truth will surface. As you read James, you will feel like your toes are being stomped and become quite convicted and uncomfortable. It's ok. Everybody does. Keep reading and you will gain valuable insights into practical living and relationships.

The daily devotions are sent via email and posted on Facebook. My email address is abeasley@japerfirstumc.com.
